A. Yes
Q. What time did you reach your home?
A. 10.25
Q. Where was your home at this time and how long did it take you to get from Stevens' home to your own?
A. On the next avenue (Camden Avenue), which takes only 5 minutes time.
Q. How do you recall the day of the 14th of September, 1922? Is there anything particular that fixes that time and the events of the evening in your memory?
A. Thought nothing about it until the newspapers began linking Mr. S. name, when I deducted until I knew when I was with him and it could not be possible for him to have any connection with the crime. (See separate sheet)
Q. How did Mr. Stevens appear that night? Was he at all excited, nervous, or quiet as usual?
A. Just normal - in good humor.
Q. Did you see Mr. Stevens the following day. September 15th, 1922? If so, at what time?
A. At my house in the evening - probably saw him at the station that morning, as he usually saw me off.
Q. Did you have any conversation with him the following day?
A. Yes
Q. What was the subject of the conversation?
A. General conversation, also that he had caught a large blue fish that day and, as his family were away, he said he would bring it to Mrs. Eger. Mrs. E. invited him to help eat it at our house on Saturday noon.
Q. How long were you together?
A. The best part of the evening.
Q. What, if anything, did you and he do that you recall?
A. Nothing except talk and make plans for the next morning, as I was going to remain in Lavalette the next day.
Q. Did you see Mr. Stevens on Saturday, the 16th of September, 1922? If so, when?
A. Yes, right after breakfast.
Q. Did he take dinner at your home? If so, at what time?
A. Yes. Noon.
Q. What did you do that morning? Were you with him?
